Challenging Your Worldview
Volume 2

BE BOLD

Marcus L. Davis

1. What Do I Do?

Offer Insight and Guidance: I share wisdom and truth found in the Scriptures to illuminate life's challenges and decisions. Starting with a message from God to you, and then from you to others.

Facilitate Spiritual Growth: I challenge mentees to push beyond the boundaries of tradition and identify and apply their God-given gifts, talents, and calling.

Provide Intentional Discipleship: I help individuals develop a deeper, more personal relationship with Jesus Christ and mature in their faith.

Create a Safe, Confidential Space: I listen without judgment, offering support, encouragement, and accountability.

2. Who Do I Help?

Aspirational Mindsets: Those preparing for or need practical wisdom and spiritual grounding.

Growing Believers: Individuals who are seeking to understand the Bible better, establish consistent spiritual disciplines (like prayer and reading), or deepen their walk with God. It is possible.

Those Facing Life's Troubles and Quandaries: People navigating significant changes, such as relational struggles, major decisions, or moments of doubt.

Anyone Seeking Clarity and Purpose:
Individuals wrestling with their identity in Christ and how to live a life that honors
God. And anyone who is just unsure about their life's direction will benefit from a coaching program.

3. Why Should You Care?

Accelerated Emotional, Spiritual, and World Maturity: Mentorship provides focused attention and a tailored approach to growth that is often faster and deeper than navigating faith alone.

Avoidance of Common Pitfalls: I offer the benefit of experience, helping you recognize and navigate complex situations, minimizing unnecessary setbacks or regrets. You are asked to win. Commit.

Greater Confidence in Your Focus and Calling: You will gain a clearer understanding of your unique purpose and the confidence to walk in it with grace and strength. It's time to be bold.

Practical, Applied Faith: I help bridge the gap between biblical knowledge and everyday application, so your faith becomes a living, active force in your life.

It's time to start now.
Why wait?

Don't navigate your faith journey alone; take the step toward intentional growth by allowing me to walk alongside you, helping you anchor your life in Christian principles that works for everyone and fulfill the unique purpose designed exactly for you.
